

Members classified advertising

The Association wishes to provide a means to help members exchange their finches. In addition to advertising in the Association's magazine 'Finches', members may also wish to place an advertisement on this website. To do so, you may wish to supply the relevant information through our e-mail address at support@finches.co.nz.

Members wishing to place or query members classified advertising on this website are the Association's webmaster or the National Exchange Steward.

Advertisements will be placed on the following terms:

- Limited to members only
- Relevant information supplied
- Advertisements will expire 30 days after placement
- Sales consistent with clubs objectives and constitution
- Right of webmaster, or National Exchange Steward, or President to refuse advertisement
